Carbondale youngsters honored at Jr. Sports Association fete

By LARRY GABRIEL JR.

The Carbondale Area Jr. Sports Association officially closed the books on its 1983 Carbondale Area Blitz football season with its annual awards banquet on Sunday, January 15. The affair, which attracted approximately 200 people, featured guest speaker, Jerry Boyarsky (NFL starter - Cincinnati Bengals) and was highlighted by the awards presentations to all athletes and cheerleaders.

Athletes and cheerleaders, who range from ages 7-14, received individual awards for their participation of the junior sports program.

Following opening remarks by toastmaster, Mike Cerra, Father Joseph Sica congratulated the participants of the '83 football program.

Boyarsky followed with a 20 minute talk which was flavored with a few jokes. The main theme of Boyarsky's speech to the youngsters was three parts: 1) Faith in yourself. 2) Faith in your parents and other adults and 3) Faith in God.

The "A" team which captured the Northern Area Jr. Football Conference Championship and the National Division regular season title, were presented individual trophies and championship jackets.

Although all ballplayers were vital to the 1983 on the field successes, the association decided to continue its tradition of awarding four achievement awards. The selection process was the most difficult ever. Special achievement awards were presented to: Rosler ('MVP'); Imbalzano (offensive award); C.Soloman (defensive award) and W. Soloman (lineman award).

The "B" team which had an impressive season, awarded individual trophies to: Pat McLaughlin, Tom Tierney, Eric Curcio, Francis Newcomb, Bob Durkin, Chris Bossick, Chris Sarnoski, Ray Price, Jim Durkin, Jim Ashby, Marty Bonacci, Paul Voglino, Mike Tolerico, Aaron Haley, Jeff Kovaleski, Mark Tonsky, J.J.Perri, Larry Risner, Jim Prebich, Mike Waibel, Chris Leonard, Gene Klimash and Todd Gillette.

With equal difficulty in the selection process, special achievement awards were presented to: Curcio (defensive award); Leonard (lineman award); Tierney (offensive award) and Jim Ashby (Little Big Man).

The "C" team, which were tri-champions of the National Division, bestowed trophies to: Barry Siebold, Jeff Ashby, Terry Rosler, Jimmy Miller, Joe Caporali, Pat Tierney, Eric Salko, Kyle Miller, Jon Kalchmore, Mike Borick, Mike Conigaro, Sean Tierney, Mike Caporali, Joe Marazzoco, Jim McMyne, Eric Mozeleski, Don McMyne, Tom White, Sam Linzio, Tom Rude, John Richards, Bill "Bumper" Rosler and Chris Daley.

As in the "A" and "B" special awards, the "C" presentations were a difficult selection process. Special presentations went to: Joe Caporali (MVP); Tierney (MVP); Mozeleski (offensive award) and Jeff Ashby (defensive award).

The organization's morale boosters, the cheerleaders also received trophies. They were, Ann McLaughlin, Rema Ruddy, Dodi Grier, Denise Cerra, Janel Caporali, Fran Caporali, Janine Favalone, Leigh Wagner, Diane Usialko, Mary Jo Addley, Patricia Farrell, Jenny Sanderson, Tracy Ormsby, Linda Andrews, Ellen Tierney, Amy Runco, Christine Hunter and Carrie Kovaleski.

Every season, the association present the John J. Caporali Memorial Award. This season, the association expanded the award and presented an award to each level of competition.

The Caporali award, which is considered the association's most prestigious accolade, reads as follows: "Presented to the football players who best exemplify those characteristics on which sports are based - good sportsmanship and respect for fellow players and coaches on and off the field." The 1983 recipients are: Dan Ashby - "A" team plaque, Bob Durkin - "B" team trophy and Jim Miller - "C" team trophy.

Banquet by-lines... The Caporali family received a special award for their assistance during the season. Athletes, who played five years or more received watches. All "A" team graduates will receive sweaters. Cheerleaders also received monogram letters and experienced graduates were presented jackets.

BEHIND THE BENCH

Boyarsky discusses career with Bengals

For Cincinnati Bengals starting nose tackle Jerry Boyarsky, this is the time of year to reflect on the 1983 season and to look ahead to the '84 schedule.

Boyarsky, who was the guest speaker at the Carbondale Area Junior Sports Association banquet this past Sunday, also has some family matters to be concerned with at this time.

The former Lakeland star is busy building a house and he and his wife are expecting a child this week. Ironically, the baby's arrival is ticketed for - you guessed it - Super Bowl Sunday.

FOOTBALL TALK

Boyarsky, who has two years left on his contract, was pleased with his '83 performance, although he feels that there is always room for improvement.

"I was pleased to be a starter this season. I hope to improve my pass rush in '84," said Boyarsky.

While looking back at '83, Boyarsky noted that Steeler center Mike Webster and Miami's Dwight Stanvenon were the toughest offensive linemen that he battled in '83.

LOOKING TO '84

With a new head coach, the Bengals will undergo some changes, but Boyarsky doesn't forsee any major defensive changes. The Bengals were the top defensive team in the NFL this past year, therefore, new defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau will have a solid personnel.

The college draft will be upcoming and the Bengals have the first and seventh pick. "We're only a few players away from Super Bowl status," said Boyarsky.

The Bengals have experienced problems with the USFL situation with Cris Collinsworth, Dan Ross and a starting offensive guard already signed by the USFL and a couple defensive people talking to the new league.

Boyarsky likes the Los Angeles Raiders chances in the Super Bowl due to Washington's weakness against the pass, especially the long pass.

PIGSKIN TID-BITS

While staying in condition for the next season is a "dedicated proposition," the day-to-day off season events are not like the day-to-day operation during the season.

According to Boyarsky, Monday was film day and a time to loosen up while the Bengals had off on Tuesday. The following day was game plan day and more films, while Thursday was a tune-up practice using Sunday's expected game plan. Friday was spent going over short yardage situations, goal line circumstances and other special drills. The night before the game an 11 p.m. curfew was enforced.

Bench Briefs

The approximate 220 people who attended the Carbondale Area Junior Sports banquet had nothing but praise and words of thanks about Jerry Boyarsky's talk and guest appearance at the affair. Art Sweet also received positive remarks about the delicious catering effort for the banquet. ... I like the Raiders in Super Bowl XVIII, 27-24.

F.C. Rotary to sponsor basketball shootout

The Forest City Area Rotary Club will again sponsor the Rotary Easter Seal Basketball Shootout at the three schools in the area. Last year $43,582.59 was raised by the thirteen participating clubs in Rotary District 741 and Forest City was number four in the ratings.

The Easter Seal Societies of Northeastern Pennsylvania, Wyoming Valley, Pike County, Monroe County, and Bradford-Sullivan Counties were the recipients and it helped these Societies to carry on and in some cases expand their most needed programs with the handicapped in their areas.

The students of the Forest City Regional, Mountain View and Western Wayne School Districts who want to participate in this program should be lining up their sponsors so that the Shootout will be a huge success this year. More information will be coming later.
